

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Approved For Release 2003/06/10 : CIA-RDP78-04718A000400090030-7

~~SECRET~~

ER-0-8268

Discrepancy

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

5 January 1950

MEMORANDUM FOR: SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE
FOR RESEARCH AND INTELLIGENCE
DIRECTOR OF INTELLIGENCE, GENERAL STAFF,
UNITED STATES ARMY
DIRECTOR OF NAVAL INTELLIGENCE
DIRECTOR OF INTELLIGENCE, HEADQUARTERS
UNITED STATES AIR FORCE
DIRECTOR OF INTELLIGENCE, ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION
DEPUTY DIRECTOR, JOINT INTELLIGENCE GROUP,
THE JOINT STAFF
DIRECTOR, FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

SUBJECT:

CIA Situation Reports

REFERENCES:

- a. Memorandum from DCI to the Special Assistant to the Secretary of State for Research and Intelligence, subject as above, dated 13 December 1948.
- b. Memorandum to the DCI from the Director of Intelligence, GSUSA, subject as above, dated 18 November 1949.
- c. Memorandum to the DCI from Assistant Executive, Directorate of Intelligence, Department of the Air Force, subject as above, dated 5 December 1949.
- d. Memorandum to the DCI from the Director of Naval Intelligence, Subject: Navy Participation in Preparation of CIA Situation Reports, dated 5 December 1949.

1. In reference b, c, and d, the intelligence agencies of the three Services recommend that the Situation Report Program be discontinued entirely. They indicate further that, if the Situation Report Program is continued, any participation in it by them would seriously interfere with the higher priority National Intelligence Survey Program.

2. The United States Government urgently needs comprehensive background analyses of the situation in all areas which are vital to the national security. The only such publication presently available is the "Defense Project" covering the USSR. National Intelligence Surveys on other critical areas are in production, but it is believed that none of these will be completed in the immediate future. It seems essential,

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Approved For Release 2003/06/10 : CIA-RDP78-04718A000400090030-7

~~SECRET~~

~~SECRET~~~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

therefore, that work on Situation Reports covering such areas should be continued as a stop-gap program until reasonable assurance is had that the National Intelligence Survey Program itself is ready to publish complete studies.

3. A comparison between the status reports of the Situation Report Program dated 1 December 1948 and 1 December 1949 shows the following:

25X1A

a. Studies on seven countries which were scheduled in 1948 were disseminated before 1 December 1949: [redacted]

25X1A

25X6A
25X1A

b. The study on [redacted] and parts of the study on [redacted] have been disseminated since 1 December 1949.

25X6A

25X1A

c. The study on [redacted] which was scheduled in 1948, was disseminated during 1949. The study on [redacted], which also was scheduled in 1948, was cancelled during 1948. No further commodity studies are scheduled.

25X1A

d. Five reports scheduled in 1948 have been cancelled during [redacted]

e. Two countries listed on both 1948 and 1949 schedules are, upon re-examination, believed to be insufficiently critical to be retained so are cancelled herewith: [redacted]

25X1A

25X1A
25X1A

f. Eight areas were added to the schedule during 1949: [redacted]

25X1A

25X1A

25X6A

[redacted] and [redacted] are now critical areas, the study on [redacted] is in the process of advanced coordination with the IAC agencies, and the study on [redacted] is nearly completed by CIA; both studies are therefore retained on the schedule. The study on [redacted] is not only on a critical area but is also nearly completed by CIA, so should likewise be retained on the schedule. The five others are cancelled herewith as not being on critical areas.

25X1A

25X1A

g. All of the other areas listed on the 1 December 1949 schedule of the Situation Report Program are believed to be vitally important to United States security and strategic interests, so should therefore be retained on the schedule.

4. In summary, CIA believes that Situation Reports on the following critical areas should be retained on the schedule, in the order of their probable completion:

25X6A

a. Situation Reports in an advanced stage of coordination with the IAC agencies: [redacted] (remainder), and [redacted]

25X6A

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~~~SECRET~~

~~SECRET~~

25X1A

25X1A

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

b. Situation Reports which are nearly completed by CIA: [redacted]

25X6A

25X6A

25X1A

c. Situation Reports on which production has begun within CIA: [redacted]

CIA will schedule additional Situation Reports if other areas become critical, in the absence of National Intelligence Surveys on such areas.

25X1A

5. By reference a, the agency participation in this program was reduced to commenting on those sections of the drafts prepared by CIA which are of primary interest to them. Since in references b, c, and d the intelligence organizations of the three service agencies have strongly urged that their formal participation in this program be reduced still further or eliminated entirely, it is recommended that the IAC agencies complete their comments only on the four scheduled Situation Reports which are in an advanced stage of coordination with them -- [redacted], [redacted] remainder.

25X1A

25X6A

25X6A

6. For the reasons given in paragraph 2 above, CIA proposes to continue the revised Situation Report Program for the sixteen countries listed in paragraph 4 above. The IAC agencies are released from the responsibility of reviewing the completed drafts of the other twelve scheduled Situation Reports for formal concurrences or comments. CIA will carry an appropriate notice to this effect in each Situation Report so published.

7. Nothing in the foregoing should be construed as modifying the customary continuing responsibility of the IAC agencies to make available to CIA all pertinent intelligence and unevaluated information concerning the situation in critical areas, and to afford informal assistance to CIA, as needed, through operational liaison on the working level.

8. It is hoped that you will continue your participation in this program, as outlined in paragraph 5 above, as expeditiously as is possible, and that the NIS Program will go forward so that in the course of time it will be unnecessary for CIA to continue the Situation Report Program beyond that shown in paragraph 6 above.

FOIAb3b

DISTRIBUTION:

SC/IAC

Director

Executive

AD/GRE

[redacted] ORE

COAPS

R. H. HILLENKOETTER
Rear Admiral, USN
Director of Central Intelligence

25X1A9a

COAPS:PC:cmy
5 January 1950

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~~~SECRET~~